

Tired of buffets?

So are we.

Join us for a retro dining and entertainment experience as

The Paw Paw Lake Yacht Club becomes

The "Old Blue Eyes" Supper Club

Featuring the legendary performer

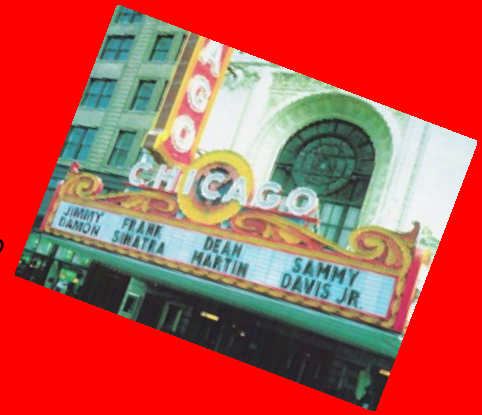

Jimmy Damon

"...the WORLD's only singer authorized by Frank Sinatra to sing his songs during his lifetime and a swanky, vintage 1950's inspired menu prepared by award-winning

Executive Chef Patrick Sheerin

of the Signature Room at the 95th in Chicago

Saturday, July 10, 2010

Cocktails and Martinis poured at 7:00

Candlelit Supper at 8:00

Singing and Dancing with "Old Blue Eyes" to follow

$50 per person

This will be a memorable evening you won't want to miss or hear others talking about ...

Reservations needed on or before Wednesday, July 7th to either

Mary Alice Jovan 269.463.5275

Julie Jovan Sheerin 312.504.1095

Some tidbits on Jimmy Damon...

"The youngest performer ever signed the famed SUN RECORDS."

"When Bill Murray was at Second City, one night after work he dropped into That Steak Joint to catch Damon's last set. Murray later morphed Damon into "Nick the Lounge Singer" for "Saturday Night Live."

"Entertainers like Jimmy Damon have helped maintain Chicago's image as a swingin' town."