

A decorative border on the left and right sides of the page. The left side features a vertical yellow bar with a white double-line border, and the right side features a vertical black bar with a white double-line border. Scattered throughout the page are various stars: solid black, solid yellow, white with black outlines, and yellow with black outlines. Some stars are larger than others, and they are arranged in a way that suggests a constellation or a trail of stars.
